

Study

EUROPEAN INTEGRATION in Norway

28th ANNUAL SUMMER SCHOOL

UNIVERSITY OF AGDER

KRISTIANSAND, JUNE 27 – AUGUST 4, 2017

Course I:

History, Institutions, and Policies of European Integration
June 27 – July 14

- > Methods in European Studies I: Process Tracing and Comparative Methods
- > The Political System of the European Union and Differentiated Integration
- > EU Governance and Administration: Experimentalism in Multi-level Systems
- > Single Market: EU and US
- > Differentiated Integration and External Governance:
Norway and the Western Balkans

Course II:

The European Union in Crisis: Differentiation or Disintegration?
July 18 – August 4

- > Methods in European Studies II: Research Design and Europeanization
- > The Dynamics of the Euro-crisis
- > Turkey, the EU and the Refugee Crisis
- > Brexit and the Rise of Euroscepticism
- > Beyond the EU: Comparative Regionalism

Organized in two Master-level courses in the summer, and a web-based course offered during the fall semester, EISS provides an in-depth specialization in European Integration and Governance. Each course carries 10 ECTS. The two summer courses can be attended separately. By successfully completing all three courses, you will earn our half-year specialization certificate in European Integration and Governance.

The 2017 EISS guest faculty includes, amongst others, Derek Beach (University of Århus), Michele Chang (College of Europe, Bruges), Carlos Closa (Institute for Public Goods and Policies, Madrid), Michelle Egan (American University, Washington, DC), John Peterson (University of Edinburgh), Simona Piattoni (University of Trento), Claudio M. Radaelli (University of Exeter), Branislav Radeljic (University of East London), Emek M. Uçarer (Bucknell University), and Simon Usherwood (University of Surrey).

No tuition fees charged

Inexpensive student housing available

Apply before May 1.

For updates and further information about the application, please visit us at <http://www.uia.no/eiss>

UNIVERSITY OF AGDER

